

INFORMATION SYSTEM FOR PREPARATION OF LAND MANAGEMENT PLANNING DOCUMENTS (ZPDIS)

SOLUTION DESCRIPTION

Modern technology (e-services, GIS, e-signature) based information system includes e-services for preparation of land management projects of rural development, land consolidation projects, land plots development and reorganisation projects, taking of land for public needs projects. Information system allows the National Land Service and its territorial units to provide e-services (G2C, G2B, G2G) reflecting the needs of society and making an efficient and transparent "single-window" based process of land management planning, also promoting participation of society and business entities in decision making.

BENEFITS

- Improved servicing of the interested people.
- Significantly shorter terms of preparing land management projects (~30% shorter).
- Efficient control of land management project preparation.
- Possibility to provide e-services.
- Reduced costs related to preparation and implementation of land management projects.
- Appropriate data use and storage.
- E-documents allows manage processes in paperless way

ABOUT COMPANY

Asseco Lietuva, UAB (Asseco Lithuania) is a Lithuanian software development and system integration company, belonging to Asseco Group, that is the largest IT group in Central and Eastern Europe.